Civil Action No.: 17-CV-6011

STIPULATION OF DISMISSAL

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a)(1)(A)(ii), Plaintiffs Maurice Cabrera, Gregory Offutt and David Staton (collectively, "Plaintiffs") and Defendants CBS Corporation and CBS Television Studios, a division of CBS Studios Inc. (collectively, "Defendants") and Counter-Plaintiff Eye Productions Inc. ("Counter-Plaintiff"), by and through their respective undersigned counsel, jointly stipulate to the following: (1) the dismissal of Plaintiffs' remaining retaliation claims, without prejudice, (2) the dismissal of Defendants' and Counter-Plaintiff's counterclaims, without prejudice, with each party to bear its own costs and attorneys' fees, and (3) this stipulation shall have no effect on, and shall not apply to, any rights that Gregory Offutt and David Staton may have in the matter of Hines, et. al., v. CBS Television Studios, et. al., 15-cv-7882.

The Court notes that the parties' stipulation calls for all claims and counterclaims to be dismissed "without prejudice." The Court presumes, in the absence of further disclosure, that the parties have not entered into any other agreements or understandings restricting the plaintiffs' rights in connection with refiling their FLSA claims. See Opinion & Order (Dkt. No. 57), at 14 n. 7. On that basis, the parties' stipulation is APPROVED and all claims and counterclaims are DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

The Clerk is respectfully directed to terminate all pending motions and close the case. SO ORDERED.

Barbara Moses, United States Magistrate Judge
